

Br. Musa Kagolo

Br. Musa Kagolo is married with children and resides in Staten Island, New York and is a member of the UAMA NY~NJ Chapter. Br. Musa has served UAMA since inception; he has served as the Chairman of DC~MD~VA Chapter while living there until 2010. He has served on the Executive, the Board, Educational, Religious and Professional Committees. Br. Musa was elected UAMA Vice Chairman three years ago, moved to UAMA Chairman in 2016. But due to suspended elections in 2016, Br. Musa continued to serve as UAMA Chairman through 2017. On January 1, 2018, Br. Musa will assume the position, duties and responsibilities of UAMA Board Chairman.

In his tenure as UAMA Chairman, Br. Musa has worked hard to promote and advanced programs such as the UAMA Clean Water Project, intended to provide rural communities in Uganda with convenient clean water especially to Muslim brothers and Sisters during Ramadan; UAMA Sunday Schools, in rural Uganda to provide basic Islamic teachings to our Children and adults alike; UAMA My Swalah My Swadaka, to help offset the many financial burden that the UAMA organization faces in order to bring our community the comfort and programming they love to have.

Br. Musa's belief in the UAMA causes make UAMA Mission that much more powerful for him. Bringing together communities in UAMA is also most interesting to him.
