

Br. Musa Musinguzi

Brother Musa Musinguzi is single and resides in Waltham, Massachusetts and is a student at Harvard University, working on his bachelor's degree in Technology. Br. Musa holds a similar position as that of Vice Chairman. He's currently the Vice Chairman of the Muslim Youths of Boston.

Br. Musa's marketing skills and good social network makes him more than capable of fundraising, a great qualification for this position. UAMA's mission is powerful to Br. Musa because it unites all Muslims in America and motivates the youths. He's most interest in UAMA so that he may work to bring Muslims and especially the youths to realize their full potential and achieve the American dream.

Br. Musa hopes to strengthen UAMA with his passion and dedication to UAMA causes.
